

I am very concerned about the current state of media ownership, and I fear that it will get worse if further deregulation is to occur. America stands for freedom: The FCC is charged with protecting the precious institutions that give us access to valid information from multiple perspectives. Thank you for your time.